

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

Office of the Governor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, April 14, 2015, marked the one hundred and fiftieth year anniversary of the establishment of the United States Secret Service; and

WHEREAS, for a century and a half, the United States Secret Service has stood as guardian of the integrity of the securities and money of the United States; and

WHEREAS, for over a century the United States Secret Service has borne the responsibility for protecting the Chief Executives of our Nation; and

WHEREAS, the responsibilities entrusted to the small and dedicated force of the Secret Service are today of greatest importance to the orderly functioning of our system of government:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Phil Bryant, Governor of the State of Mississippi, do hereby recognize the United States Secret Service for its more than 150 years of service. I thank the men and women of the Secret Service and their families for the spirit and standards of selfless service which have won the esteem and respect of the Nation and this State during the century and half of the Service's discharge of the high duty assigned to it.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, on the 29th day of December in the year of our Lord, two thousand and fifteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and fortieth.

PHIL BRYANT
GOVERNOR
